

MILLINER OPENS SHOP

Miss Margaret A. McNulty, professional milliner, reference to whose coming to Torrance was made in last week's issue of the Herald, has temporarily located in the Murray building opposite the chamber of commerce on El Prado street, where she is prepared to meet the most exacting demands of the well groomed women of Torrance.

Having been recently connected with some of the most exclusive millinery establishments in Southern California, Miss McNulty is well equipped by natural taste as well as training to turn out hats for women that will compare with those of the larger city, both in price and beauty.

ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

Mrs. M. W. Smith, wife of the well known electrician of the Torrance Electric shop on Marcelina street is critically ill at her home with a complication of tonsillitis, grippe and threatened pneumonia. While taken ill only a few days ago her condition rapidly became alarming.

CASTLE APARTMENT ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen were over Sunday guests at the home of the former's brother, B. Allen, at Maywood.

Wallace Kidder of the Castle, has been ill the past week. Mrs. Van Hoosen accidentally fell on the sidewalk near the Dolly Store Monday evening and broke her wrist and a rib. She is recovering quite nicely at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thomas motored to Fullerton Sunday.

O. T. Chambers and B. C. Hubbard visited at Yuacipa Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Betton were well equipped by natural taste as well as training to turn out hats for women that will compare with those of the larger city, both in price and beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wertz and son Bobbie of Torrance Park were visitors at the San Bernardino orange show Sunday.

Prof. J. H. Thomas of Los Angeles, professor of music, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Denny of Cota avenue. He studied abroad for a number of years before the war.

Miss May Lyons of Alabama and Frank Lightner of Torrance were married Thursday, February 16, at Anaheim. They are residing at the Murray apartments.

TORRANCE SCHOOL NOTES

Prof. Barnett was called to Los Angeles Tuesday afternoon to approve the preliminary sketches of the elementary building. He reports that the bids for the elementary building will be ready in 90 days and in 30 days those of the high school will be out.

Mr. Hunter, physical education supervisor, visited the elementary classes last Monday.

A guest on Friday of the high school girls' gymnasium class was Miss Robinson of Los Angeles. She spoke to the girls on good position and made a personal examination of their posture.

The school physician, Doctor Greene, and Mrs. Kroboth, elementary nurse, were at Torrance Wednesday.

The basket ball teams of Torrance high school met Lomita's teams at Lomita Tuesday evening. Scores were for the 130-pound, 10-0; and 110-pound, 28-15, in favor of Torrance. This game ends the basket ball season.

An educational travelogue of scenes in Holland, Scotland, Morocco and China was shown to the students of Torrance school Thursday. The regular operator, Frank Higgins, was absent, but volunteers were placed in charge.

Try-outs were held in the high school for parts in the school play, "Stop Thief," which is to be presented early in May. Parts have not yet been assigned.

E. M. Anderson, chief of police in Torrance, left Wednesday night for Sacramento to secure extradition papers for Carl Lake of Shreveport, L.A. Anderson will leave for the southern state Sunday to take charge of his man personally.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stanger were Sunday guests of Mr. Stanger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanger of Brea.
